Laketown Dental welcomes Dr. Riley Raskob, DDS

By Brenda Erdahl

As Annandale grows, so does its dental needs and Laketown Dental is committed to filling them.

Last summer, the local dental clinic completed a remodel that updated the current offices and added additional treatment rooms to accommodate a rising local demand for high quality dentistry. This summer, it was time to hire another doctor.

On Monday, June 17, the Laketown Dental staff welcomed Dr. Riley Raskob to the team.

Dr. Riley Raskob, DDS joined the Laketown Dental team in June to help meet the rising demand for high quality dentistry.

Dr. Raskob, a native of Maple Grove, earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Minnesota Duluth then continued his studies in a predoctoral program at Marquette University in Milwaukee before he enrolled at the University of Minnesota School of Dentistry. Some of his accomplishments include acceptance into an oral surgery honors course. He graduated from the U of M with his Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS) on May 10.

Dr. Raskob knew early in his college career that dentistry was his calling. Always an eager student, he knew there would always be something new to learn as a dentist, and the fast-paced, hands-on work was appealing.

"I was never one to sit all day at a desk," he said.

He also likes working with people.

"You see your dentist typically more than your physician, hopefully twice a year. I like building those relationships with my patients and earning their trust."

He said the work itself is also very rewarding.

"If someone comes in with pain, I can relieve that pain, I can help them. That is very rewarding. So is being able to fix someone's front teeth and see how it rebuilds their confidence."

Dr. Raskob isn't a stranger to Annandale. His parents have owned a cabin on Sugar Lake since 2017. When a neighbor at the cabin found out he was a dental student she mentioned Laketown Dental was looking for an associate. The rest is history.

Working at the Annandale clinic is a lot different from the university's dental clinic where Dr. Raskob spent the last two years working under the supervision of the university faculty. It's definitely busier, he said, but he credited the Laketown dental assistants for their help making everything run smoothly.

"The dental assistants here are awesome," he said.

His goals as he begins this new adventure are to get to know his patients and co-workers, familiarize himself with the office equipment and procedure and "do really good dentistry."

When he's not working, Dr. Raskob enjoys playing golf and pickleball, reading and cooking.

About Laketown Dental

Doctors Meghan and Eric Rambow purchased Dr. Jeff Holmberg's practice on Park Street East in 2016 and opened Laketown Dental. They are a family and general dentistry clinic that also handles cosmetic dentistry, children's dentistry, restorative fillings, dental implants, root canal therapy, orthodontics and more. Capable of treating people of all ages, they are truly a family dental, one stop shop.

"Between the two of us and now Dr. Raskob, we are able to offer all those services locally," Dr. Meghan said.

The three doctors along with their dedicated team of hygienists, dental assistants and administrative staff are committed to providing quality, attentive, gentle care to all their patients.

Patients in turn rave about the Laketown team's friendliness, professionalism, compassion and knowledge.

One patient wrote, "Dr. Meghan did a wonderful job on fixing my front tooth. She was very nice and made me feel comfortable. That is all a person can ask for when going to the dentist."

Another commented, "Thank you so much Meghan and Julie, what a huge difference you made in my day in just a couple hours, I feel like smiling big again."

Dr. Meghan and Dr. Eric

Dr. Meghan is originally from Eagan. She graduated Cum Laude from Concordia College in Moorhead before earning her Doctoral of Dental Surgery from the University of Minnesota. She has taken advanced training and continuing education in CEREC® "One Visit" Dentistry and is also a certified provider in Invisalign®.

Dr. Eric is originally from Litchfield. He graduated from Northern State university before earning his Doctoral of Dental Surgery from the University of Minnesota. He has pursued significant amounts of advanced training and continuing education to focus his practice on the specialized areas of dentistry including dental implants, endodontics (root canals), oral surgery and orthodontics.

When not in the office, the couple loves spending quality time with their three children.

Clinic expansion

Last summer the clinic expanded to use the building's entire available space which means more treatment rooms and new updated facilities.

"Annandale lost a dentist when Dr. Karg retired and suddenly we were getting phone calls from people who needed a new dentist," Dr. Meghan said.

The area was growing, and Laketown Dental needed to grow with it. With the new, larger clinic and the addition of Dr. Raskob the clinic is ready to meet the new demand.

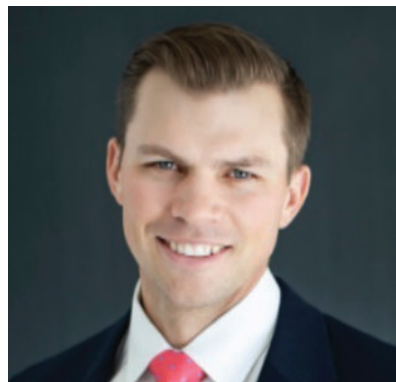

Harlan the therapy dog

One other new team member has joined the Laketown Dental family lately. Harlan is Dr. Meghan and Dr. Eric's miniature golden doodle and he's become a favorite among patients to bring comfort and calm during dental procedures. As a therapy dog in training, patients can request he sit on their laps during dental work, and he never shies away from being a comforting companion for as long as he is needed.

Like his human companions, Harlan is at the office most days and when he's not, he is missed, Dr. Meghan said.

Celebrating Independence Day in Annandale

By Steve Prinsen

For more than 125 years area residents have united to celebrate the Fourth of July in Annandale. The celebration has grown from a single-day affair featuring a pair of area orators and a brass band from Kimball to a nearly week-long celebration of American heritage with a wide variety of entertaining events.

The first organizers in 1889 would be astounded to see today's 100-plus unit parade, the whirling, rushing rides of the carnival, and the captivating fireworks display. They would be mystified by the boat parade on Pleasant Lake, the crowds reaching up to 10,000 people, and the street dances at night.

Some elements, however, would remain familiar, such as the festive wind tunes from the Annandale Community Band, a general sense of patriotic pride and perhaps even the basic elements of the modern softball games.

In all things, today's event coordinators work to preserve some of the favorites from previous years while bringing a variety of new entertainment into the mix.

Schedule of events

This year's celebration extends from Wednesday, July 3, to Sunday, July 7.

The Annandale Ambassador dessert social to introduce the Miss Annandale royalty candidates will take place at the City Park Pavilion

The carnival kicks off on Wednesday July 3 through Sunday July 7.

Once dusk settles in, a large fireworks display will light up the town from an offshore platform, capping off a long weekend and a great day celebrating the country's independence in Annandale.

beginning at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 12. The Kick-Off to the Fourth of July Gala will be held at 7 p.m. at the Southbrook Golf Course, lower level, on Friday, June 28.

The celebration opens with the carnival opening at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, July 3. Each year the carnival spreads out over a few city blocks near Municipal Park on Oak Avenue north of downtown with an assortment of food, rides and games that the whole family will enjoy.

Local food vendors will also be on hand along with the carnival's food vendors. Other Wednesday events include an evening performance by the Annandale Community Band.

Celebration centerpiece

The centerpiece of the celebration are all of the events on Thursday, July 4. The parade, which begins at 10 a.m., includes around 100 floats, cars, bands and more that fill Park Street, Main Street and Chestnut Street. Grab your spot early!

In addition to colorful floats and exotic displays, the parade will feature an assortment of musical talent. Parade entries can vie for most entertaining in the float contest.

The carnival re-opens immediately after the parade at noon, with bingo from noon to 6 p.m., and at 5:30 p.m. a new Miss Annandale will be crowned at 5:30 p.m. in the park.

The Fabulous Armadillos will return to play

The annual parade is the centerpiece of Annandale's five-day, Fourth of July celebration. The parade takes place on Thursday, July 4 at 10 a.m.

the Fourth of July concert in the park at 7 p.m. and will play until 10. The Armadillos have drawn some of the largest crowds in memory during their recent performances. Once dusk settles in, a large fireworks display will light up the town from an offshore platform, capping off a long weekend and a great day celebrating the country's independence.

Events continue on Friday, July 5. The carnival opens at noon there is a live music performance at night, Concrete Jesus. There will also be the traditional fundraisers of Cake by the Lake and Brownies with the Band each evening.

The Firecracker 5K has been moved to downtown Annandale on Saturday, July 6, 8 a.m. start. The kiddie parade begins at 10:30 a.m. through the downtown streets. A number of activities get underway at noon or earlier at the park, including the men's softball tournament. This year there will also be a kiddie tractor pull at noon at the park. The West Metro Band performs in the evening, among other activities.

Sunday also includes activities including a co-ed softball tournament, bingo and the carnival.

Check the Annandale Advocate this summer for more details. There is also a website devoted exclusively to Annandale's Fourth of July activities, www.annandale4thofjuly.org.

By Brenda Erdahl

The 2024 Maple Lake Area Community guide will be published and inserted into the next issue of the Lake Country Lure and your photo could grace the cover if you get your photo entry in by July 4th. The race is on for the best photo in town and it doesn't matter if you're a professional, amateur or a local resident, all photos are welcome. The contest is open to everyone, and the only rule is it must be a picture of the Maple Lake area.

Spend a morning or quiet evening with your camera and capture the perfect image of our beautiful community and your image could be on the front cover of this four-color, high gloss community guide in 2024.

Winners will be announced in the Maple Lake Messenger and finalists will be recognized throughout the pages of this year's community guide.

Besides fame and bragging rights, the winning photo will earn $100 in Business Bucks to spend at a local business of your choice.

Please send digital images as large as possible to ads@maplelakemessenger.com. Be sure to include your name, phone number, address, and a brief description of the picture. An 8x10 color print may also be submitted if email is not an option. Feel free to use the door mail slot to drop off your photo after hours.

Remember, vertical photos fit the community guide's cover best. Now go grab your camera and show off what you got.

Local artist work on display in Maple Lake

By Brenda Erdahl

The beauty of a sunset, the peaceful solitude of a quiet pond and the intricacies of a blooming flower have been known to capture the imagination of Susan Wright and inspire her to put paintbrush to paper. Watercolor is her medium because it moves like a flowing stream, reflects light like a breeze caressed lake and essentially brings life to her artwork.

For the next two months, fifteen of Wright's idyllic watercolor scenes will grace the walls of the Maple Lake Library bringing nature indoors for time. From June 3 to July 26th, readers will be tempted to lounge near a rocky vista with a good book or curl up under a starry sky lit up by the northern lights.

Wright is the second exhibitor in the library's year-long effort to display the work of local artists. She has called Buffalo home for the last 44 years but is originally from Duluth and the North Shore continues to be an inspiration for her artwork.

"Nature inspires me to make art with creative emotion," she said. "Plants, birds, a quiet pond, the movement of waves and clouds, are examples of what fuels my inspiration to paint. I have found that watercolor, its fluid nature and boundless color potential, works best for me to express my feelings and my experiences with nature."

Wright is a self-taught artist. She has a degree in biology and has taken graduate courses in forestry and landscape architecture which she put to use in her 24-year career as a landscape designer for Dundee Nursery. In 2004 she retired, but designing outdoor spaces for private residents had taught her a thing or two about drawing and understanding how people relate to the outdoors, she said.

She began painting in 2007 during a transitional period in her life. Her two sons, Tristan and Eric had grown up and moved away and her husband, David, a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, had received a four-month job opportunity in New Zealand.

A year later, she joined the Buffalo Art Guild and has since displayed her work in several solo art shows as well as exhibited as an Art Guild member in local clinics and banks. Her most recent accomplishment is the publication of a children's book she wrote and illustrated called "Gramma Lost Her Underpants." Her five grandchildren inspired the book she said. She donated a copy to the Maple Lake Library, and it is also available at Buffalo Books and on Amazon. She is currently working on the illustrations for a Christmas themed children's book written by a friend.

"We are fortunate that for the months of June and July her art will grace our walls," said exhibit organizer Judith Feenstra.

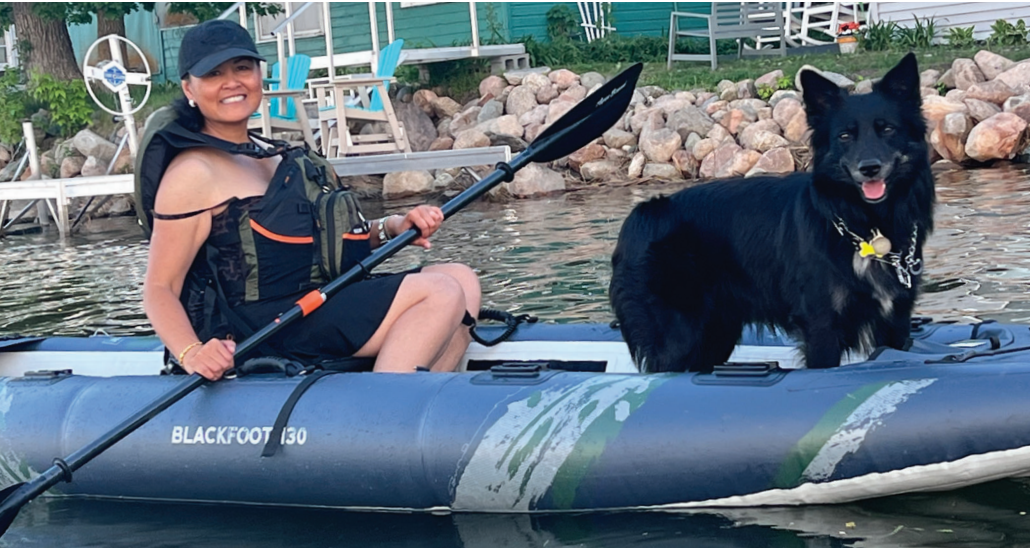

Wright's artwork will be displayed throughout the library on the corner of Division Street and Birch Avenue in downtown Maple Lake and can be viewed anytime during library hours: Monday and Friday 12-6 p.m.; Wednesday 3-6 p.m.; and Saturday 10 a.m. – 1 p.m.

To view more of Wright's artwork, visit <https://www.facebook.com/SueWrightArt>

The watercolor paintings of Susan Wright will be on display at the Maple Lake Library now until July 26th. Susan Wright has lived in Buffalo for 44 years and is a member of the Buffalo Art Guild. The painting above shows her love of nature and moving water.

Prepare your pets for Independence Day celebration festivities

Pets will rest much easier in the evenings with plenty of daytime activity in the sun during Independence Day weekend. Make time for everyone and plan accordingly. Have an safe, enjoyable July with your pets, family and friends.

By Brenda Erdahl

Many people are eager for Independence Day celebrations in early summer. There is much to be excited about, as festivities often begin in the afternoon with barbecues and pool parties, and commence late at night after fireworks shows that light up the night sky. Still, not everyone enjoys the extra noise and busy nature of July 4th parties, particularly furry members of the family.

Animal control services often report an increase in lost animals between July 4th and July 6th. That's because the excitement of the holiday puts pets out of their comfort zones.

While pet owners need not cancel their July 4th plans, they should take heed of the many ways to keep their pets safe during the festivities.

Update identification

Prior to any July 4th events check your pets collars for current identification information. If an address or phone number has changed since the last time you updated microchip records, be sure to check the account is current.

Alcoholic drinks

Party hosts typically serve beer, wine and cocktails. Alcoholic beverages have the potential to poison pets, says the ASPCA. Animals can become very intoxicated, severely depressed or go into comas if they drink alcohol. Keep spirited drinks well out of reach.

Check with the vet

Many pets are prone to anxiety from loud noises, such as thunderstorms and fireworks, and lots of commotion - something that occurs in spades come July 4th. Some veterinarians recommend a small course of anti-anxiety medication or a sedative to help pets cope with the stimuli.

Quiet space

Allow pets to ride out the day in their comfortable, quiet and cozy retreats. If necessary, create a space in an interior room. Cover the pet crate with a blanket and offer favorite toys or bedding to create a soothing environment.

Place notes on doors and gates

While it's best to keep pets in a locked room away from the fray, some pets like to socialize with guests and are not bothered by noises. However, alert guests with notes posted on doors and fence gates to check to make sure pets are not trying to escape behind them. Close doors firmly when entering or exiting.

Pick up debris

Firework debris can rain down on properties even if you were not shooting off the fireworks. Curious pets may pick it up or eat it, which runs the risk of an upset stomach or even an intestinal blockage. Check your yard before letting pets out to play.

Grilling Foods

Pets can be opportunists, and those burgers and chicken drumsticks smell delicious to pets. Pets that get too close to the grill can become injured. And if pets eat leftovers, they may end up with digestive distress or even be poisoned by foods that are toxic to cats and dogs.

Recently Immanuel Lutheran in Silver Creek celebrated a special Mission Sunday. During the service over 300 pillow case dresses and T-shirt shorts, made by the women of Immanuel, were given to a Mission entitled, "Shining the Light of God's Love in Uganda". Brian and Jesca Kuhl, two of the leaders of this Mission, once a year deliver these simple made dresses and shorts to children in Uganda. The children also receive a message of God's special love for them. Immanuel Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod may be a Church small in numbers but big in CARING HANDS. Our services begin at 9:00 on Sunday mornings. Visitors are always welcome. For more information call 763-878-2820 or 660-619-1164. Plan for some fun at the Wright County Fair July 24-28

Looking for fun close to home this summer? The Wright County Fair in Howard Lake will fit the bill with five days of entertainment, education and competition, July 24-28.

This 154-year-old event features a midway with rides for all ages, an assortment of animals (some exotic), grandstand events including a demolition derby and tractor pull, live entertainment, and of course, fair food. Visit the junior livestock shows and check out the hard work of local 4-H clubs.

The Grandstand

Grandstand shows are always a highlight of the fair. They kick off on Wednesday, July 24 with the Motokazie Show at 6:30 p.m. Motokazie features high-flying, fast paced dirt bike and ATV racing. This supercross race contains ATV, dirt bike and pit bike classes. See racers jump 70-foot triples, navigate bermed corners and pound through the whoops. The combine, Power Wheels and lawnmower
