CLASS COLORS:

To the graduating class of 2025

As the Superintendent of Maple Lake Public Schools, it is both an honor and a joy to celebrate this incredible milestone with you. Graduation is a culmination of years of hard work, resilience, and growth — and more importantly, it marks the beginning of an exciting new chapter in your lives.

This message is one of the toughest goodbyes I’ve ever had to write. Why? Because I’ve known so many of you since 8th grade, when I first arrived in Maple Lake. Over these years, I’ve watched you grow — not just academically, but as people. That makes this moment especially meaningful for me.

You’ve come of age during extraordinary times. Your high school journey was shaped by a global pandemic, rapid changes in technology, new learning formats, and challenges none of us saw coming. And yet, through it all, you persevered. You adapted. You stayed connected, you kept learning, and you continued to grow.

Today, we recognize not just your accomplishments, but the strength of your character.

Maya Angelou once said, “Do the best you can until you know better. Then, when you know better, do better.” That simple truth will carry you far. You don’t need to have all the answers today. Keep learning. Keep striving. And as you grow, let your choices reflect your wisdom.

As you enter a world full of opportunity, I urge you to follow your dreams — even the bold, uncertain ones. Steve Jobs once said, “The people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world are the ones who do.” So go ahead — be one of those people. Be brave. Be curious. Be the one who tries.

Mike Rowe
Superintendent

MAPLE LAKE HIGH SCHOOL

Your future won’t always go as planned; that’s just life. Some days will be smooth; others will test you. But you’ve already proven you have what it takes: grit, creativity, empathy, and heart. Those qualities will serve you better than any roadmap ever could.

Whether you’re headed to college, the workforce, the military, or still exploring what’s next, move forward with confidence. Make your mark with purpose and integrity. And when in doubt, remember the wise words of Dr. Seuss:

“You’re off to Great Places!
Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting, so... get on your way!”

To the Maple Lake High School Class of 2025 — we are proud of you. We believe in you. And we can’t wait to see what you do next.
